about the middle of August 1716. Daniel Stanley master of a new sloop, was on a fishing voyage near the Ile-Sables, with several other fishing vessels, there arose a very violent storm, where in (as he thought) said sloop was cast away upon the northern part of Ile-Sables there was in said sloop, said Stanley, Thomas Day, George Fenning, William Bothwell, Francis Perkins, and Abraham Thurred, of Newbury.

2. On the 14th day of October 1716 (being Sabbath Day) a storm (this said about 14. suit) of fishermen were coming from Cape Sables. Some of them within 30. or 40. leagues of our Coast: 7. of said vessels were in the Towne: there arose on said day a very extraordinary storm, which lasted all that day, and a great part of the night following; a few days after four of our vessels arrived, some of them much broken, like wrecks:

and 4. more are not yet heard of. viz. a sloop Jeremiah Butman, master, with him, Thomas Grant, Richard Emors, Morris Smith, Peter A. Clark; another sloop, John Davis master, with him Joshua Giddings, and two men more a third sloop Stephen Clark, master, with him John Gifford, and two men more.

a fourth sloop, James Elliot master, and with him Jeremiah Cillin, Benjamin Joffin, John Hatters, and Jo Farnham of Boston. this 4th sloop was seen near Cape Sables shortly in said storm; and none of the above mentioned vessels, or men were heard off since.

On the 21. day of October 1716. being Sabbath Day also, about the middle of the day, was a time of great darkness for an hour or two, the air had been very thick with smock, a week or fortnight together before; and on said day, the wind coming North by the clouds being very thick, together with the smock, in the evening time, the

On May 18. 1717. there was an Earthquake in general about Sint-Johns, The Earth, the and the houses, Church, and Tombs, and the sound was as the noise of great Thunder at some distance; it continued about the space of a minute.

Nov. 1717. a man, & a lad about 13. years being in a sloop, came from New Town, and took their way on the back side of the Eastern point, where being 13. leagues west of said place, they were taken, and rest safe.

April 30. 1722. There was an Earth quake in this town, continued about a minute.

NOV. 13. 1720. in the evening about 8. or 9. a clock, being very clear without clouds. There was in the north, a light like fair day light half an hour before sun rising, and at each end of the light viz. in the north-east, and north-west, there was a thin Red vapour.

Danvers Stevens, master of a Schooner, and with him William Carter, and David Samson, and 2 more men, were lost near Isle-Sables, April 1722.

June 22. 1724. Three of our fishing Vessels were taken by the Indians in Fox-harbour, viz. James Wallis's, James Wallis's junior and John Lane, then killed of our town James Wallis The Finson, John Lane, Richard Tarr, and Joseph Wallis.

March 25. 1724. Three men belonging to Ipswich were drowned in Annesquam River near the mouth of River, viz. Christopher Hodgkins, & one Gutz.

March 27. 1727. A terrible storm at S. east of Brig was cast away on Normasch Rock, she belonged to Boston, and came from West Indies to the north South Capt John Cook's master, was on board, and taken up
